Áras Inis Gluaire/Erris Arts Centre is delighted to present a five day feast of music, comedy, art & storytelling from July 12-16 in Erris. For over 20 years Féile Iorrais has brought exceptional talent to play Belmullet and its environs.

This year features the finest of Mayo musicians from Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann, plus John Hoban and Emer Mayock, as they gently guide us through the magnificent Mayo landscape with story and song, and a special guest on the night from Zimbabwe, Tura Aratura, who dances Sean Nós like no other on this isle.

Two Ireland's finest comedians, Joe Rooney & Patrick McDonnell, are from The Father Ted show, and in Further Ted they present a night of stand-up and musical comedy.

A unique event takes place on Claggan Island where one of Mayo's most exciting artists, Joanna Hopkins, will be turning Bent grass into paper sculptures. The whole family can come along and participate while being entertained by the raving Rev Sinclair, juggler extraordinaire.

In O'D's bar you can experience a night of stonking hillbilly music from the Fake McCoys and it all finishes off on Sunday with a beautiful show, A Message of Peace, from the great Galway singer/storyteller, Seán Tyrrell.

Here he tells the incredible story of one of the nation's great forgotten heroes, the Fenian John Boyle O'Reilly.

Cuireadh / Invitation

Áras inis Gluaire/Erris Arts Centre is proud to present a solo exhibition of paintings by one of Ireland's most talented and genuine artists, Keith Wilson RUA, who is based in and inspired by the environs of North Mayo.

Entitled BEING HERE, this exhibition describes Keith's concern with the natural world of his immediate environment, at home or away from Mayo. It highlights notions of stillness, awareness and how it can be important to return and look again.

The exhibition will be launched at 7.30pm on Saturday, July 15th by our esteemed guest, Mick O'Dea, President of the Royal Hibernian Academy, Member of Aosdána and the Board of Governors of the National Gallery of Ireland, Chairman of the Stamp Design Advisory Committee of An Post and Honorary Member of the Royal Scottish Academy.

The opening will be followed by A Mayo House Party, featuring the wonderful Castlebar singer/songwriter and raconteur, John Hoban. All are welcome.

'A Mayo House Party'

in Áras Inis Gluaire @ 8pm

An evening of music, song and dance with Mayo's finest singer/storyteller
John Hoban and multi-instrumentalist
Emer Mayock and guests

John Hoban is a composer, singer and musician from Castlebar, Co. Mayo. John has also played and taught music all his life in the Troubadour tradition. He chose to learn his music with care over many years from some of Ireland's most respected master musicians. John combines the best of the Irish tradition with an intimate, warm and raw sensibility that is his own.

He is an accomplished player of fiddle/violin, banjo, whistles, mandocello in addition to being a singer and composer of wonderful songs and music.

Emer Mayock is a traditional musician and composer from Co. Mayo. She began to play traditional music during her childhood on a range of instruments including the Flute, Whistles, Fiddle and Uilleann Pipes.

‘Message of Peace’ with Sean Tyrell

The story of Irish hero John Boyle O'Reilly

This is a deeply moving, engaging and remarkable story of a lesser-known, Irish hero John Boyle O'Reilly (1844-1890); in both spoken word and song; mapping his life and work. Pickled (in places) with Tyrell's own observations on our own times and condition, leaving no doubt as to the passion, as relevant now as they were when first written; the title poem and song being a perfect example.

Tracing his journey from early childhood, set against a backdrop of famine, revolution, and penal servitude for life in Australia.
